

Life is much better with the NJ do not call rules. The federal Government should consider adopting them rather than watering ours down. We still get a few calls from "charities". they should be banned as well because the calls are equally annoying.